

See how Japan has changed in a special screening of a new film about Japan and its people through the eyes of anthropologist Keith Brown, who has been returning to Japan for more than 50 years.

Can't Go Native?

by David W. Plath and Chet Kincaid

Monday, September 27, 2010
4:00-5:00 pm
John Carroll University
Administration Bldg. AD-258

Sponsored by John Carroll University East Asian Studies Program and the Department of Sociology & Criminology. For further information about Can't Go Native?, see www.cantgonative.com. Questions about this program should be directed to Susan Long at 216-397-1685 or long@jcu.edu.

John Carroll University East Asian Studies
Pamela Mason, Coordinator
pmason@jcu.edu 216-397-4307

